

I do support ARRL's proposal for the removing the morse code requirement.

It would help the ham radio hobbies grow more.

For us no code techs, getting into world of H.F. band without the morse code requirement will open us more into the international family, and also bring more new friendships in the future!!

3-25-04

From Timothy C. Johnson N5XZS